Background

About CCB

- China Construction Bank Corporation ["CCB"], our parent company, has an operating history of nearly 60 years, which dates back to 1954 when the People's Construction Bank of China, a wholly state-funded bank, was established under the Ministry of Finance, and was responsible for administering and disbursing government funds for construction and infrastructure related projects under the State's economic plan. In 1979, the People's Construction Bank of China became an affiliated financial institution under the State Council and gradually assumed more functions of a commercial bank.
- The People's Construction Bank of China gradually became a full service commercial bank following the establishment of China Development Bank in 1994 to assume its policy lending functions. This entity was renamed China Construction Bank in 1996.
- In December 1995, China Construction Bank set up its first overseas branch – Hong Kong Branch which is the largest overseas branch for CCB. CCB Hong Kong Branch is specialized in wholesale banking services in the core markets of Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan, and covering the whole Greater China Region. The branch's target clients include local blue-chip and sizable red-chip corporations, Chinese conglomerates and multinational corporations in the region.

- CCB was restructured into a joint-stock commercial bank in September 2004 and assumed all business operations and related assets and liabilities of the original China Construction Bank.
- CCB was listed on Hong Kong Stock Exchange in October 2005 (stock code: 939).
- CCB was listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange in September 2007 (stock code: 601939).
- In 2013, the Group's overseas network steadily expanded. CCB Russia, CCB Dubai, Taipei Branch, Luxembourg Branch, CCB Europe, Osaka Branch (Tier-two branch) were successfully opened. From July 2013, the Group has conducted integration between Hong Kong Branch and CCB (Asia), and transferred the main business of Hong Kong Branch to CCB (Asia). At the end of 2013, the Group had overseas branches in Hong Kong, Singapore, Frankfurt, Johannesburg, Tokyo, Osaka, Seoul, New York, Ho Chi Minh City, Sydney, Melbourne, Taipei and Luxembourg, and wholly-owned operating subsidiaries including CCB (Asia), CCB International, CCB London, CCB Russia, CCB Dubai, and CCB Europe. Its overseas entities covered 15 countries and regions.

About CCB (Macau)

- CCB (Macau) is a wholly-owned subsidiary of China Construction Bank (Asia). Originated from The Bank of Canton, CCB (Macau) was founded in 1936 with a history of nearly 80 years.

About CCB (Asia)

- China Construction Bank (Asia) ["CCB (Asia)"] has a long history of over 100 years since 1912 and is one of the "Century-old" companies in Hong Kong. In the past century, we witnessed the economic development of Hong Kong, at times during both booming and declining economy.
- In February 1912, Chinese businessmen from San Francisco, United States, founded the Bank of Canton which was the first Chinese-owned bank in Hong Kong. Our growth paralleled Hong Kong's development. The Great Depression in the 1930s and the Second World War in the 1940s seriously disrupted our operations. When Hong Kong was liberated after the war in 1945, former staff rebuilt the bank and soon we were back in business. It soon became the largest Chinese-owned remittance and foreign exchange bank in Hong Kong in the post-war era.
- Shanghai Fire & Marine Insurance Co. Ltd. became a subsidiary of The Bank of Canton and was renamed Hongkong & Shanghai Insurance Company Limited. Later, QBE Insurance Group of Australia became a shareholder of Hongkong & Shanghai Insurance Company Limited and renamed it QBE Hongkong & Shanghai Insurance Limited, which is an associated company of CCB (Asia) today.
- Following the whole acquisition by Security Pacific National Bank in 1984, The Bank of Canton was then renamed Security Pacific Asian Bank. Upon the merger of Bank of America Corporation ["BOA Corporation"] and Security Pacific Corporation in 1992, we changed our name again to Bank of America (Asia) in 1993. In 1998, BOA Corporation merged with NationsBank Corporation to form the new Bank of America. And in 2001, our Chinese name was changed again to be in line with the English name.
- In August 2006, an acquisition agreement was made between China Construction Bank ["CCB"] and BOA. As a result, the Bank of America (Asia) became a wholly-owned subsidiary of CCB and we were officially renamed China Construction Bank (Asia) on December 30 in the same year.
- To complete the bank's wealth management function to provide better services for customers in Hong Kong and Macau, we acquired AIG Finance (Hong Kong) in October 2009 and the company was renamed China Construction Bank (Asia) Finance, and the move has made us one of the largest credit card issuing institutions in Hong Kong. In May 2011, we have successfully completed the integration of China Construction Bank (Asia) Finance, pursuing to maximize the synergistic benefit for the bank's overall operation.
- On June 27, 2013, CCB announced the integration and optimization of its business and operations in Hong Kong by consolidating majority of the business of its Hong Kong Branch into CCB (Asia). The integration enhances the overall operating strength and customer service capabilities of CCB in Hong Kong, and helps to provide better services to local institutional and individual clients, as well as clients from Mainland China who come and invest in Hong Kong.

After integration, for corporate and commercial banking, CCB (Asia) provides a range of financial products and services, including commercial loans, syndicated loans, residential and commercial mortgages, trade financing, machinery and equipment leasing, stockbroker financing and deposit-taking activities, to corporations, securities firms and small and medium sized enterprises.

For retail banking, in addition to providing conventional transactional, foreign exchange and cash services, CCB (Asia) also offers deposits, loans (including personal loans, credit cards loan, residential mortgages, auto-financing), securities agency and investments, consolidated banking, insurance, RMB services, credit card and electronic banking services, to meet customer's financial needs.

CCB (Asia)'s treasury business includes inter-bank money market transactions and investment in debt instruments. It also trades in debt instruments, derivatives and foreign currency for its own account. The Treasury carries out customer driven derivatives, such as foreign currency transactions. Its function also includes the management of the Group's overall liquidity position, including the issuance of certificates of deposit.
